Pipete pendant

The Pipete pendant is a compact, sculptural light carved from natural stone, available in beige travertine or black lava stone. Each piece carries its own subtle variations in tone and texture, celebrating the individuality of the material. Its tactile finish and simple form bring a grounded, earthen quality to spaces such as island benches, bedsides, or powder rooms. Suspended on tonal fabric cords, the Pipete offers a harmonious blend of refined craftsmanship and organic beauty, casting a warm, timeless presence in both intimate and open settings.

TIP:

Pair multiple Pipete pendants at staggered heights to create gentle visual rhythm, or position a single piece as a statement accent in a smaller space for understated elegance.
